“Ella Marin”

Seattle, WA | +1 (203) 312 4168 | emarin4@uw.edu

Education

University of Washington, Seattle, WA

Expected June 2029

Ph.D. Astronomy

Topics: Stellar Streams, Dark Matter, Galactic Evolution, Machine Learning

Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH

June 2025

B.A. in Physics (High Honors), minors in Astronomy and Hispanic Studies

Senior Honors Thesis: Probing Dark Matter Via Stellar Stream Structure and Satellite Galaxies

Honors and Awards

Achievement Rewards for College Scientists (ARCS) Fellow

2025

Dartmouth College Physics and Astronomy Chair’s Prize

2025

Selected Presentations and Talks

Using Simulation Based Inference (SBI) to constrain the dark matter perturber of the AAU stellar stream

July 2026

- Near Field Cosmology in the Era of Big Data, Toronto, CA

The Discovery of Three Galactic Wolf-Rayet Stars

January 2025

- 245th AAS Conference

Teaching Experience

Incoming CLUE Physics Tutor, University of Washington

2026 -2027

- Hired for the upcoming school year at the Center for Learning and Undergraduate Enrichment (CLUE) to tutor undergraduates in physics twice weekly.

ASTR 101 Astronomy TA, University of Washington

Winter 2026

- Led weekly recitation sessions, held office hours, and proctored and graded exams.

Introductory Physics Lab TA, Dartmouth College

Winter & Spring 2025

- Led laboratory sessions for introductory mechanics and electricity and magnetism courses

Learning Fellow for Electricity and Magnetism, Dartmouth College Spring 2024

- Demonstrated problem-solving techniques and reviewed course content during weekly recitation
- Completed required pedagogy course to improve quality of instruction

Women in Science Peer Mentor, Dartmouth College 2023 - 2025

- Advised first-year students on course selection and research opportunities

Service & Outreach

Planetarium Presenter, University of Washington 2026 -

- Given 3 planetarium shows to audiences ranging from 5th graders to undergraduate students

eSTEAM Tutor, University of Washington 2026 -

- Running summer school program for children at Echo Glen juvenile detention center
